Often praised as "baseball's perfect warrior" for the way he played the game. Stan Musial was also well known for playing the harmonica. "The Man's" rendition of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" was frequently a prelude at public gatherings, such as Cardinals games, the baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremony, and other charity events. Stan's talents were even on display in the nation's capital, when he entertained the White House prior to receiving the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 2011.
