

Carr Lane VPA News & Views

Part One

March 2023

No. 20

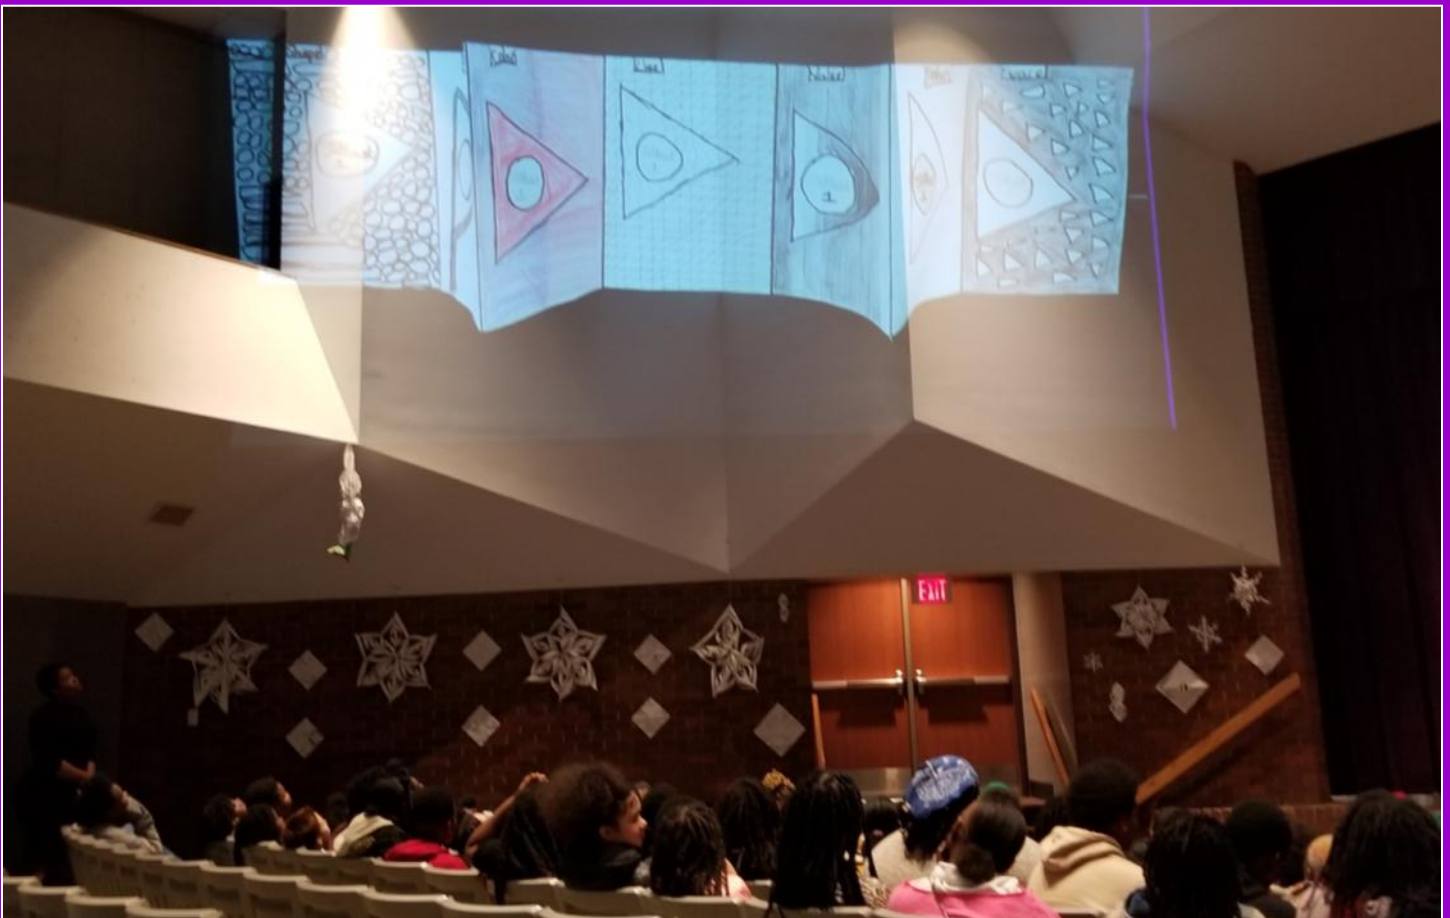

With Spring around the corner, let's look back at the Carr Lane VPA Winter Show! The students under direction of Carr Lane's Dance Teacher and Related Arts Team Leader, Ms. Tina Parker, bring it to the audience!

Under the direction of Ms. M. Williams, The Carr Lane VPA Choir performs for students, parents and staff.

Carr Lane's Assistant Principal, Ms. Gross, introduces Mr. Walker and the Carr Lane VPA Strings!

While performers changed scenes behind the stage curtain, students from Dr. Phoenix's Computer Classes showcased artwork produced by Ms. L. Williams' Visual Art students in a PowerPoint presentation projected on the auditorium wall! Note the wall beneath the projection: the winter-themed decorations produced by Ms. Williams' art students adorned the theater. The halls were "decked" in time for Winter break!

VALENTINE'S DAY DANCE!

Students had a great time at the Valentines Day Dance!

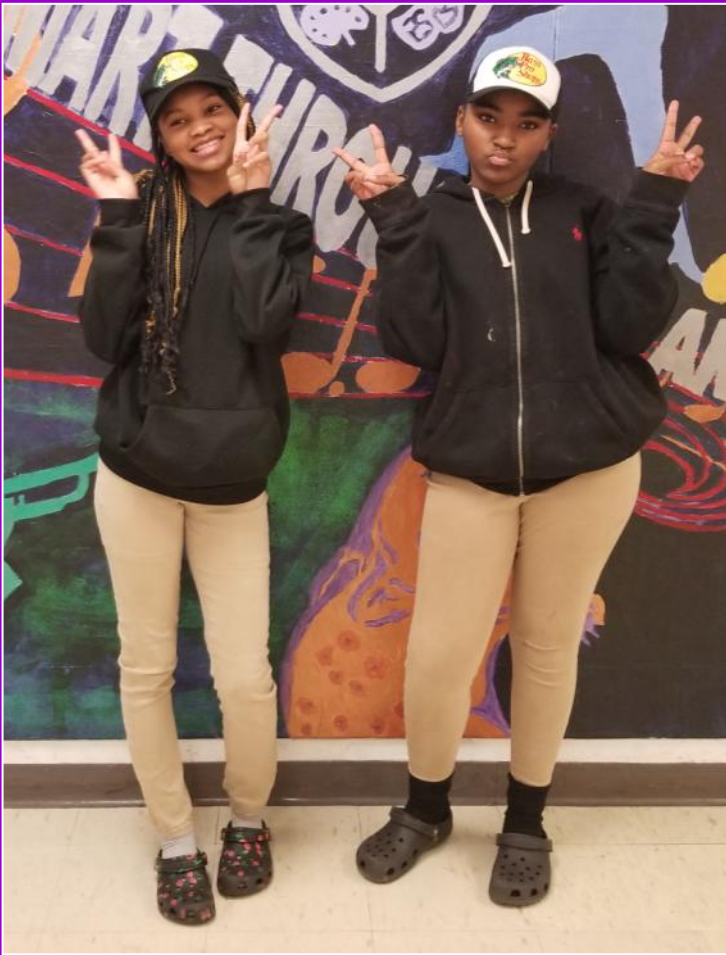

Dr. Seuss Twin Day

Triplets?!

It was the week of the birth of children's book author and illustrator, Dr. Seuss, born on March 2, 1904. To show their support for the district's Dr. Seuss Reading initiative, students and staff dressed with a different "Seuss inspired" theme each day of the week. February 28, 2023 was "Twin Day!"

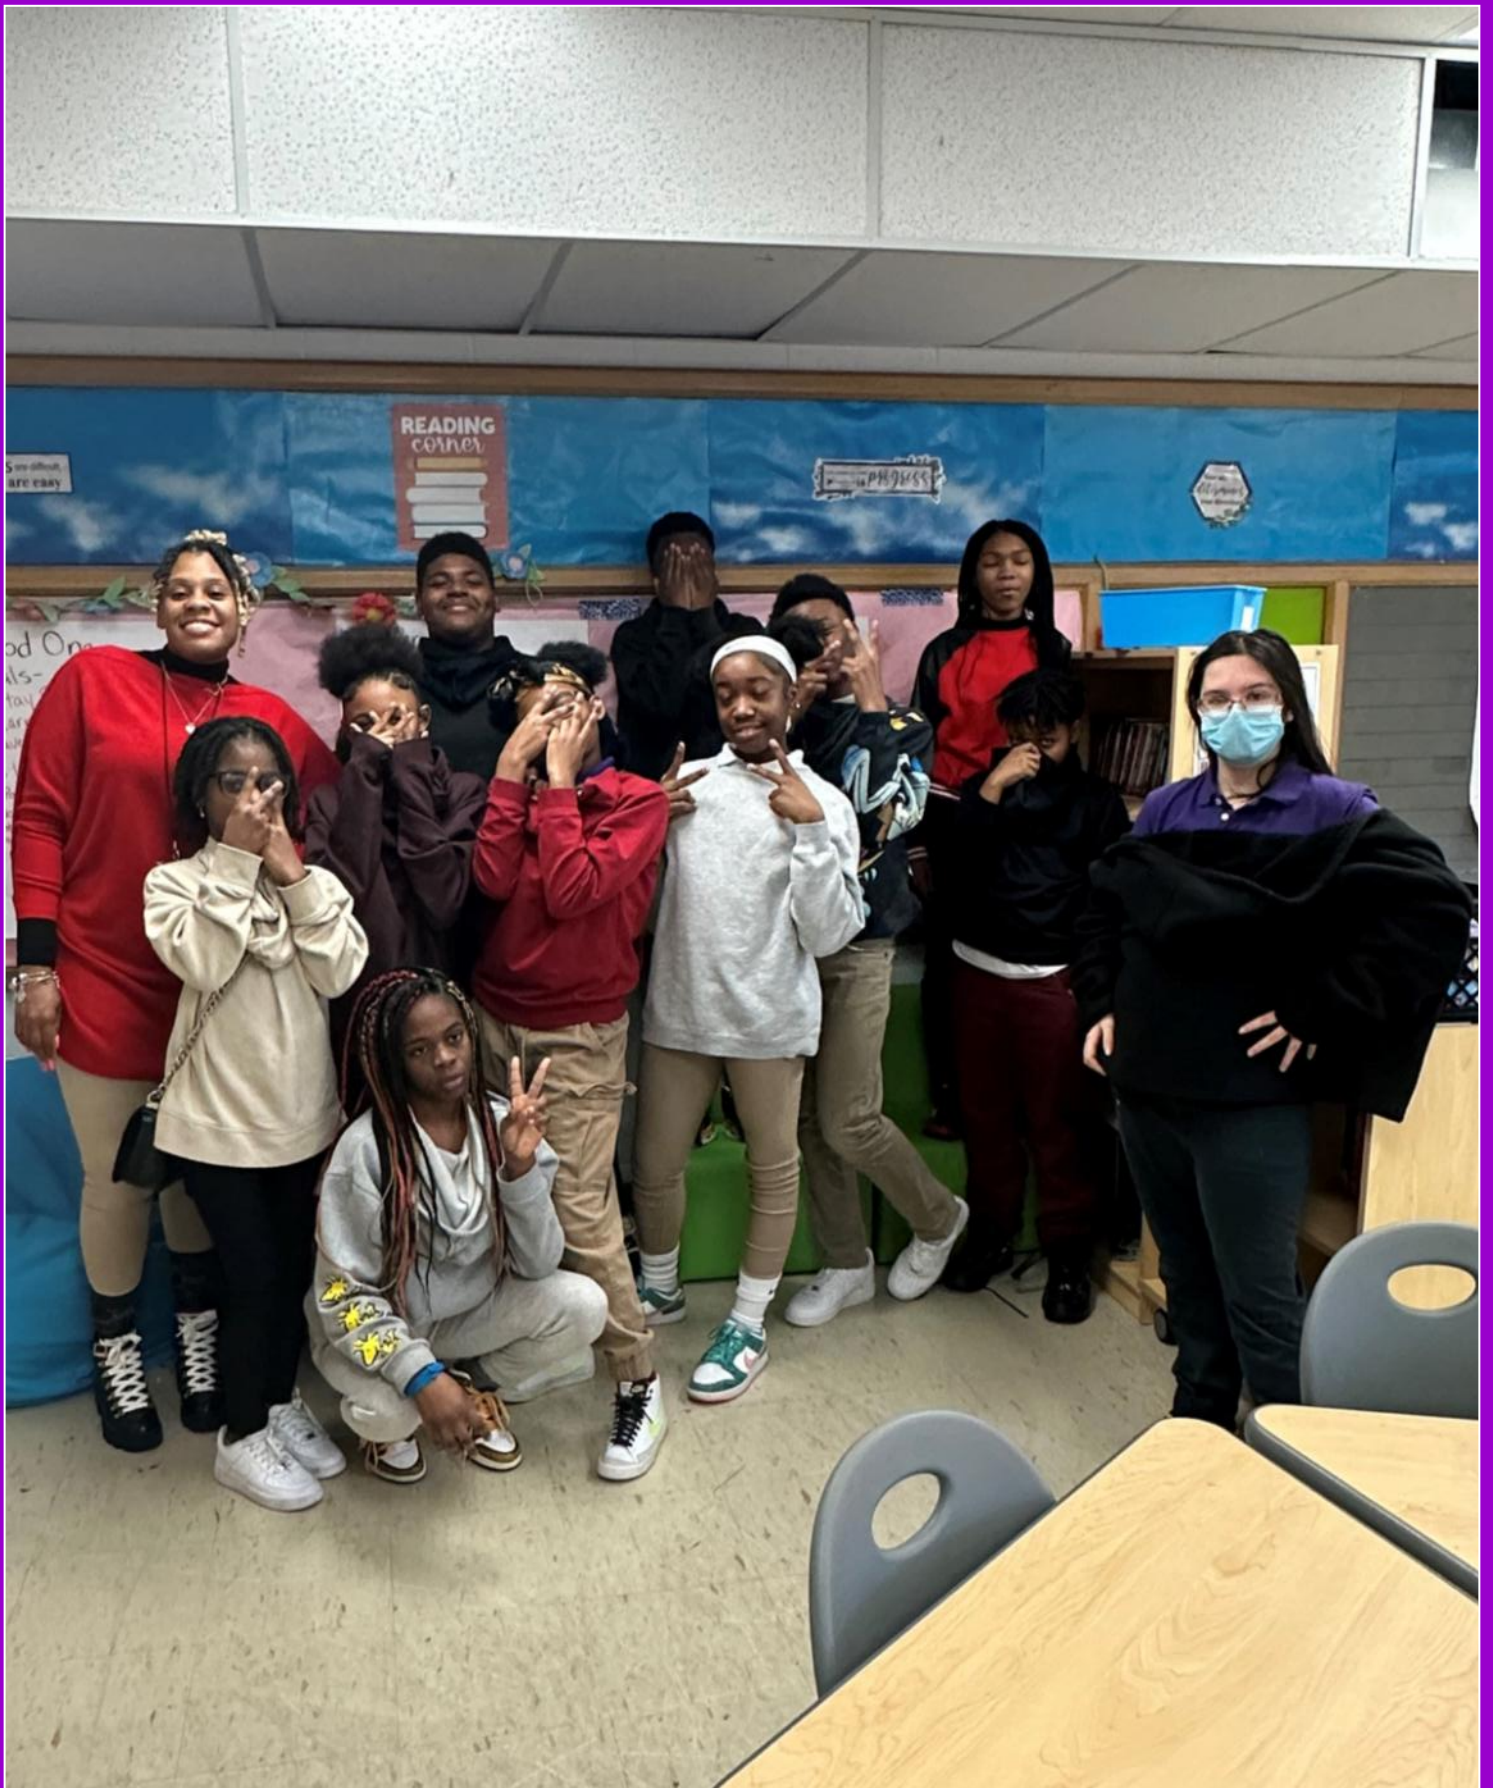

Ms. Moore covers Ms. Nash's 7th Grade ELA classes on "Backwards Day" in honor of Dr. Seuss and Reading!
