

ESOL Choice Board for Grades 6-8

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Remember, point of view is the perspective from which a story is told. Most stories are told in 1st person (using a character's own words and I or We) or 3rd person (about other characters and using he, she, or they). Click here to watch a clip from "Toy Story 3." Can you retell the story from Woody's 1st person point of view? What about using 3rd person perspective to tell about Andy's side of the story? Try it! 	Click here to review subject and object pronouns. After you review, click here to quiz yourself! How many can you get? 	Click here to watch a short video that explains the Veteran's Day holiday in the USA. 	Many schools have "class officers," or students who are elected to represent their grade to the administration and plan events for the class. If your school had class officers, would you want to run? What promises would you make to your class in order to win your race? Why would you choose those goals? How would you accomplish them? Try making a list: President (Your Name)            Promise 1:            Why:            How: Promise 2:            Why:            How: Promise 3:            Why:            How:	Win the White House! Click here to build your campaign and simulate a presidential election.
