

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Listening

Explore how Sophie calms down when she gets angry by Click here to read "When Sophie Gets Angry—Really, Really Angry." Reflect on the strategies you use to calm yourself when you experience anger.

Why is Sophie angry?

Sophie's mom tells her it's her sister's turn to play with the gorilla, but Sophie does not want to share. What does Sophie do to calm down? "When Sophie gets angry, she goes for a walk outside into nature, sits in a tree, and calms down."

Listening

Listening

Discover the animals in the classic children's book "Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See?" by Click here to listen to the story. Can you name all the animals mentioned, including the big happy frog, plump purple cat, handsome blue horse, and soft yellow duck?

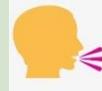

What was your favorite animal in the story? What do you know about that animal? "My favorite animal was the purple cat. My favorite color is purple, and I have a pet cat." How many animals were in the story? What colors were they? How are they the same, and how are they different?

Speaking

Speaking

Click here to watch a video about animals in spring! Learn about various springtime animal behaviors, including hibernation, migration, and more. Share the interesting facts you discover with a friend or family member."

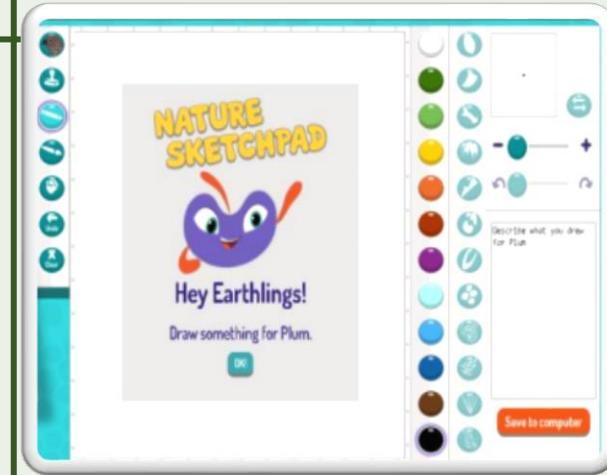

"I learned that animals begin to wake up from their hibernation. Turtles, frogs, ladybugs, and bears are all animals that hibernate. Hibernation is when some animals sleep all winter long. Some animals wouldn't be able to find food in the winter."

Speaking

Speaking

Click here for a tutorial on drawing an animal that hibernates during the winter months. Select a person to describe your artwork to and share the colors you chose and the specific details you included in your drawing.

"I decided to draw a picture of a bear. I know that bears do not eat or drink during the winter months. I used a brown color to color in my bear, and I also added claws, fur, eyes, nose, and mouth."