

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Gerald the giraffe, who wants nothing more than to dance. With crooked knees and thin legs, it's harder for a giraffe than you would think. Does Gerald finally dance? Click here to listen to Giraffes Can't Dance.

How does Gerald feel throughout the story?

First, Gerald feels sad. The other animals laugh and make fun of his dancing. Towards the middle of the story, Gerald meets a cricket who gives him advice and helps him become a more confident dancer. At the end of the story, Gerald shows off his dance moves and all the animals agree that he's the best dancer! At the end of the story, Gerald is one happy Giraffe."

Listening

Click here to guess the animal! You will be given different clues for each animal while a picture is revealed. See if you can guess the animal before it's revealed! How many animals can you guess?

"Clues were given to guess the animals. I was able to guess chicken, elephant, bear, and cat. I also learned that frogs have sipper skin and webbed feet."

Speaking

Click here to look at pictures of animals. Find a family or friend to describe the animal to and see if they can guess the animal!

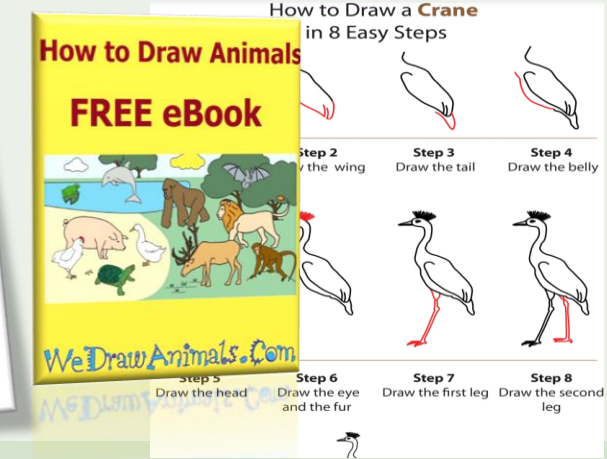

"I am animal that has long leg, and a really long neck. I am the tallest living land animal on earth! My body is covered with tan blocky patterns. What kind of animal am I?" (Giraffe)

Speaking

Ever wonder how artists draw animals? Click here to view a book on how to draw over a hundred animals. Can you create a picture with 5 animals in it? Tell a family or friend about your picture.

"My picture is titled, AT THE ZOO. I decided to draw a lion, giraffe, a monkey, an elephant, and a leopard. I used crayons to color the animals and their environment."