

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

The chameleon wanted to have a color of his own. Click here to listen to A Color of His Own.

Why did the chameleon want a color of his own?

(The chameleon wanted a color of his own, just like all the other animals. However, his color kept changing! He turned red with the autumn leaves and black with the dark winter )

Listening

Do you ever wonder what it is like to run for president? Click here to listen the story If I Ran for President.

If you ran for president, what would your favorite part be? (If I ran for president my favorite part would be traveling and meeting different people. I would also enjoy eating cereal with kindergartners.)

Speaking

Click here to weigh different objects. Tell a family member what objects you weighed and how much each object weighs.

" First, I weighed the turtle. The turtle weighs 24 pounds. I used one ten pound weight and four one pound weights. Next, I weighed a dog...."

Speaking

Click here to create your own pizza! Tell a family member the toppings you used on your pizza.

"I only like a little bit of tomato sauce. I used mushrooms, green peppers, cheese, and fresh mozzarella cheese for my pizza toppings."