

Pre-k Choice Board

Listening

Listening

Click here to listen to The Very Hungry Caterpillar in English and Arabic. What happened after the caterpillar nibbles himself out of the cocoon? Tell a family member.

The caterpillar got really fat, and then what happened next? The caterpillar built a small house, called a cocoon, around himself. He stayed inside for more than two weeks and then he turned into a big, beautiful butterfly.

Listening

Listening

Click here to listen to Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? Listen to the story in English and French. What was your favorite part? Tell a family member.

What was your favorite part? "My favorite part was listening to the story both in English and French. I also enjoyed telling the story as the readers read the story."

Speaking

Speaking

Click here make a simple frame for your masterpieces using sticks you find outdoors. Tell a family member how you created your picture frame and about our art piece.

"I went outside and collected wood sticks that fell from trees. I used yarn to form a square and my grandma helped me put a picture I drew of my family inside the frame."

Speaking

Speaking

Click here to go on a flower shop field trip with Miss Penny and the KidVision Kids. Learn about flowers and how to make a flower arrangement! What did you learn?

"I learned about parts of a flower and I found out what a chrysanthemum flower looks like. The chrysanthemum flower reminded me of one of my favorite books."