

Monkeypox

Monkeypox is a rare disease caused by infection with the monkeypox virus. The virus shares similar symptoms with smallpox.

Symptoms to look out for

You may experience the symptoms listed below:

- Fever,
- Chills,
- Rashes,
- Muscle Aches/Backaches,
- Chills,
- Fatigue and/or
- Lymph node swelling behind the ears, on the neck, under the armpits, or in the groin

How does it Spread?

- Rubbing or touching the infectious scab, rash, or bodily fluid
 - can happen through intimate contact with an infectious person, such as kissing or hugging
- Touching items (such as clothing or linens)
- Face-to-face contact

Prevention Steps

- Practice safe sex
- Do not touch the rash or scabs of a person infected with monkeypox
- Do not handle or touch the bedding, towels, or clothing of a person with monkeypox

More Info:

1520 Market St #4027,
St. Louis, MO 63103
314-657-1499

Scan with cellphone camera