Speaking Notes for WOW #14

Hello, My full name is _____ and I will now read the academic vocabulary notes for Words of the Week Number 14.

The words for this week are:

- exasperation
- acknowledge
- exceed
- tension
- reveal

1. You experience exasperation when you feel annoyed because someone continues to upset you. To feel exasperation is similar to feeling frustration.
2. To acknowledge something is to admit or accept that it is true. When you acknowledge someone, you have noticed them or heard what they have said.
3. Exceed means to go beyond what the rules or laws say you are allowed to do. When drivers exceed the speed limit, they are going faster than the law allows.
4. Tension is a nervous or worried feeling that makes it impossible to relax. Tension can also be the amount of force that stretches something.
5. When you reveal something, you make known a secret or something that was unknown. To reveal something is to show something that was previously hidden.

Listen to the samples.

Make sure you can pronounce each vocabulary word correctly.
