

14

Words of the Week

#14

Academic Vocabulary

Let's learn some new academic vocabulary!

Words of the Week

#14

Be sure to listen to the audio on each slide! Click on the audio player at the bottom left.

WOW

Words of the Week #14

Academic Vocabulary

Year 3

exasperation = when you feel annoyed because someone continues to do something that upsets you

acknowledge = to admit or accept that something is true; to show someone that you have noticed them or heard what they have said

exceed = to be more than a particular number or amount; to go beyond what the rules or laws say you are allowed to do

tension = a nervous or worried feeling that makes it impossible for you to relax; the amount of force that stretches something

reveal = to make known something that was previously secret or unknown; to show something that was previously hidden

exasperation

DEFINITION:

- when you feel annoyed because someone continues to do something that upsets you

SAMPLE SENTENCES:

- After waiting forever at the drive-thru window, Betty threw up her hands in exasperation and drove away.
- Many people express exasperation with the always changing Covid guidelines.

exasperation

After waiting forever at the drive-thru window, Betty threw up her hands in exasperation and drove away.

exasperation

Many people express exasperation with the always changing Covid guidelines.

acknowledge

DEFINITION:

- to admit or accept that something is true;
- to show someone that you have noticed them or heard what they have said

SENTENCES

- When the teacher caught him, Bert acknowledged that he had cheated on the test.
- The queen acknowledged the crowd of people with a wave and a smile.

acknowledge

When the teacher caught him, Bert acknowledged that he had cheated on the test.

acknowledge

The queen acknowledged the crowd of people with a wave and a smile.

exceed

DEFINITION:

- to be more than a particular number or amount;
- to go beyond what the rules or laws say you are allowed to do

SENTENCES

- He was fined for exceeding the speed limit.
- Working hours should not exceed 40 hours per week.

exceed

He was fined for exceeding the speed limit.

exceed

Working hours should not exceed 40 hours per week.

tension

DEFINITION:

- a nervous or worried feeling that makes it impossible for you to relax;
- the amount of force that stretches something

SENTENCES

- Tension in the neck muscles can cause headaches.
- There was a lot of tension in the rope before it broke.

tension

Tension in the neck muscles can cause headaches.

tension

There was a lot of tension in the rope before it broke.

reveal

DEFINITION:

- to make known something that was previously secret or unknown;
- to show something that was previously hidden

SENTENCES

- The truth was revealed when the curtain was opened.
- Doctors are not allowed to reveal confidential medical information.

reveal

The truth was revealed when the curtain was opened.

reveal

Doctors are not allowed to reveal confidential medical information.

Words of the Week #14

Academic Vocabulary

Year 3

exasperation = when you feel annoyed because someone continues to do something that upsets you

acknowledge = to admit or accept that something is true; to show someone that you have noticed them or heard what they have said

exceed = to be more than a particular number or amount; to go beyond what the rules or laws say you are allowed to do

tension = a nervous or worried feeling that makes it impossible for you to relax; the amount of force that stretches something

reveal = to make known something that was previously secret or unknown; to show something that was previously hidden

Words of the Week

#14

The End

Writing/Speaking Prompt

WOW #14

exasperation

reveal

- Tell about a time when you felt exasperation.
- Describe a time when something was revealed to you.