

WOW!

28

Words of the Week
#28
Academic Vocabulary

Words of the Week #28

Academic Vocabulary

camaraderie = a feeling of friendship that a group of people have, especially when they work together

benefit = an advantage, improvement, or help that you get from something

communication = the process by which people exchange information or express their thoughts and feelings

regulation = an official rule or order; control over something, especially by rules

register = to record a name or details about someone or something in an official list

camaraderie

DEFINITION:

- a feeling of friendship that a group of people have, especially when they work together

SAMPLE SENTENCES:

- The American and European soldiers developed camaraderie when they trained together.
- One enjoyable thing about being on a team is the camaraderie between the athletes.

camaraderie

The American and European soldiers developed camaraderie when they trained together.

camaraderie

One enjoyable thing about being on a team is the camaraderie between the athletes.

benefit

DEFINITION:

an advantage, improvement, or help that you get from something

SENTENCES

- The benefits of a college education include more job opportunities and better pay.
- The benefits of walking include weight loss, lower stress, and stronger bones.

benefit

The benefits of a college education include more job opportunities and better pay.

benefit

The benefits of walking include weight loss, lower stress, and stronger bones.

communication

DEFINITION:

the process by which people exchange information or express their thoughts and feelings

SENTENCES

- Radio was the airplane pilot's only means of communication.
- Texting has become a major form of communication for many people today.

communication

Radio was the pilot's only means of communication.

communication

Texting has become a common form of communication for many people today.

regulation

DEFINITIONS

- an official rule or order;
- control over something, especially by rules

SENTENCES

- Under the new regulations, all staff must have safety training.
- The federal government controls all regulation concerning nuclear energy.

regulation

Under the new regulations, all staff must have safety training.

regulation

The federal government controls all regulation concerning nuclear energy.

register

DEFINITIONS:

- to record a name or details about someone or something in an official list;
- an official list of names or information

SENTENCES

- Many new voters registered before the last election.
- The old railroad station is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

register

Many new voters registered before the last election.

register

The old railroad station is listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

Words of the Week #28

Academic Vocabulary

camaraderie = a feeling of friendship that a group of people have, especially when they work together

benefit = an advantage, improvement, or help that you get from something

communication = the process by which people exchange information or express their thoughts and feelings

regulation = an official rule or order; control over something, especially by rules

register = to record a name or details about someone or something in an official list

Words of the Week

#28

The End

