

Words of the Week

#10

Nov. 2-6

Words of the Week

First, Let's review last week's words.

Gateway Words of the Week

#10

Academic Vocabulary Nov. 2 - 6

- impute = to lay the responsibility or blame falsely or unjustly; to credit to a person or a cause
- compute = to calculate a result, answer, sum, etc.;
- annual = happening once a year; based on or calculated over a period of one year
- aware = if you are aware of something, you notice it, especially because you can see, hear, feel, or smell it; understanding what is happening around you and paying attention to it, especially because you realize possible dangers and problems
- predominantly = mostly or mainly

impute

DEFINITIONS

- to lay the responsibility or blame falsely or unjustly;
- to credit to a person or a cause

SENTENCES

- The suspects were not guilty of the violence imputed to them.
- The political candidate tried to impute some rather unfortunate insults to his opponent.

impute

The political candidate tried to impute some rather unfortunate insults to his opponent.

compute

DEFINITIONS

to calculate a result,
answer, sum, etc.

SENTENCES

- The machine can compute the time it takes for the sound waves to bounce back
- I want to compute how much money I need to buy a car.

compute

I want to compute how much money I need to buy a car.

annual

DEFINITIONS

- happening once a year
- based on or calculated over a period of one year

SENTENCES

He announced his decision at the annual members' meeting.

Her annual income is about $75,000.

Thanksgiving is my favorite annual holiday.

annual

Thanksgiving is my favorite annual holiday.

November 2020
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30

Thursday, Nov 26th 2020

aware

DEFINITIONS

- if you are aware of something, you notice it, especially because you can see, hear, feel, or smell it
- understanding what is happening around you and paying attention to it, especially because you realize possible dangers and problems

SENTENCES

- Stay aware of your surroundings when you travel.
- Everyone is now aware of the terrible consequences of smoking.
- I was not aware that my homework was due today.

aware

I was not aware that my homework was due today.

Predominantly

DEFINITIONS

- Mostly or mainly

SENTENCES

- As an engineer, Susan will be working in a predominantly male profession.
- In 2016, voters in Missouri were predominantly in favor of the Republicans.

predominantly

In 2016, voters in Missouri were predominantly in favor of the Republicans.

Gateway Words of the Week

#10

Academic Vocabulary Nov. 2 - 6

- impute = to lay the responsibility or blame falsely or unjustly; to credit to a person or a cause
- compute = to calculate a result, answer, sum, etc.;
- annual = happening once a year; based on or calculated over a period of one year
- aware = if you are aware of something, you notice it, especially because you can see, hear, feel, or smell it; understanding what is happening around you and paying attention to it, especially because you realize possible dangers and problems
- predominantly = mostly or mainly