All SLPS Schools and Offices Closed Monday, January 6, 2025

St. Louis, MO – Due to the severe weather conditions our region is currently experiencing, all schools and offices in Saint Louis Public Schools will be closed tomorrow, Monday, January 6, 2025. This decision was made with the safety and well-being of our students, families, and staff as our top priority.

This closure means there will be no in-person, virtual, or Alternative Methods of Instruction (AMI) activities. No classes will take place, and all district offices will remain closed for the day. Additionally, all extracurricular activities, including athletic practices and after-school programs, are canceled.
