Saint Louis Public Schools Releases Key Findings from Management Assessment

St. Louis, MO – Saint Louis Public Schools (SLPS) announced today the release of the executive summary, final report, and recommendations from an independent assessment conducted by Armanino LLP. Commissioned by the Board of Education on July 25, 2024, the assessment focuses on administrative pay, hiring practices, and credit card usage.

The full report is available for public viewing at www.slps.org/audit.

Progress updates will be shared regularly on the SLPS audit webpage and discussed during Board of Education work sessions throughout 2025.
