Assessment: All of the work in History of the Americas will be assigned a point value. The number of points earned over the course of the semester will be divided by the total number of points possible to give a percentage grade. As per Metro policy, letter grades will be given as follows:

90%-100%	= A
80%-89%	= B
70%-79%	= C
60% ↓	= F

Students are expected to participate in class discussions and in any other projects as they occur and will be assessed on their knowledge of the historical subject matter as well as the quality and clarity of their writing.

Resources: The primary text for the course will be The American Pageant: A History of the American People, 17th ed. by David M. Kennedy and Lizabeth Cohen. This text will be supplemented with frequent readings from other books and articles as well as primary sources.

Classroom Procedures:

Attendance and tardiness: All students are expected to be in class and on time every day. Any work missed due to tardiness can only be made up if the student obtains a makeup assignment that day and completes it by the next class meeting.

Make-up policy: Students will be allowed to make up work that they missed due to an excused absence, but it is the student's responsibility to find out what work was missed. Tests or quizzes may only be made up outside of regular class time by appointment. Work that is missed due to unexcused absence may not be made up.

Late work: Any work that is not turned in at the beginning of the class period in which it is due will be subject to a 25% deduction in points if one day late and 50% for two or three days. (School days, not class meetings.) Work that is more than three days late will not be accepted.

Academic Dishonesty: Anyone found cheating or collaborating with a cheater on a test, quiz, research paper, essay, book report, etc., will be given a zero (F) for that assignment, and a conference will be set up including the student, a parent, and an administrator. A notation of the incident will be placed in the student's permanent folder. This notation will affect recommendations written by the school for you as you apply for colleges and scholarships. Anyone found copying homework/class work will be given a zero (F) for that assignment. Any use in any way of a cell phone or other device during any quiz or test will result in an automatic zero for that assessment.

Questions or concerns:

If any student or their parent or guardian has any questions or concerns, they should feel free to speak to me. I can be contacted by e-mail at joseph.chambers@slps.org or by phone at Metro at (314) 534-3894. Assignments and course documents are available at www.slps.org/jchambers.
