SUPPLEMENTAL ACT/SAT/PSAT PARTNERSHIP TUTORING

If you would like to enhance your student's classroom course by adding individual one-on-one tutoring, we offer our current course students supplemental tutoring packages of either 3 or 6 hours at a discounted rate. During those hours, a tutor will review your student's greatest problem areas and review homework and practice tests. Students in our tutoring programs are assigned additional subject-specific drills and practice material customized to target weaknesses and maximize scores.

Private Tutoring with ACT/SAT/PSAT course
+3 hours private tutoring	$300
+6 hours private tutoring	$600

Students with unique scheduling needs or those who would like comprehensive private tutoring should contact The Princeton Review for private tutoring options.

SOME FINAL WORDS

- Special scheduling arrangements are available for the practice tests during the course. Free make-up options are also available for those class sessions that conflict with religious holidays.
 - Call (800) 916-7737 ext. 5193 for options.
- Enrolling in one of our courses for the ACT/SAT or the PSAT does not automatically register you for the official exam. Students must register and pay at each exam's respective website. To register for the ACT or SAT please visit actstudent.org or collegeboard.org.
 - Additional information regarding test dates, registration, and deadlines also can be found at actstudent.org or collegeboard.org or in your high school counseling office.
 - Students must take the PSAT as Juniors in order to qualify for the National Merit Scholarship Competition. While some students may take this exam Sophomore year for practice, only the Junior year exam is evaluated for National Merit. To register your student for the PSAT, you should talk to the guidance office.
- We invite you to log on anytime to PrincetonReview.com for the most up-to-date information about the PSAT, SAT, ACT, and admissions statistics for hundreds of colleges throughout the United States and Canada.
- The prices listed below apply to the listed courses and for Metro High School students only. Please call for information about additional courses and locations.
