

ESOL AFTER SCHOOL PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT 2022-2023

ESOL after school professional development sessions are designed for secondary content and ESOL teachers. They highlight useful information on language development and research-based strategies that meet the specific needs of secondary ELL scholars in their content area classrooms. The session topics address skills and supports that promote academic success through language development for all secondary students!

Time Commitment:	EL Session Description	Appropriate for:
Sept. 15, 2022 3:30-4:30 pm ----- Jan. 11, 2023 3:30-4:30 pm	Supporting Secondary ELLs in Content Area Classrooms This session explores the EL scholar's assets and English proficiency and introduces strategies that create a conducive environment for content comprehension. 	Content area teachers who are new to instructing ELs or would like a refresher on comprehension strategies.
Oct. 25, 2022 3:30-4:30 pm ----- Feb. 9, 2023 3:30-4:30 pm	Notetaking Strategies for Secondary Students  This session explores the need to intentionally teach notetaking skills to secondary learners and the strategies that work well for EL students.	Content area teachers whose courses require students to take notes during lectures or readings.
Nov. 16, 2022 3:30-4:30 pm ----- Apr. 6, 2023 3:30-4:30	Supporting Secondary ELLs in Reading. This session explores why ELs may struggle with reading and how to improve reading in the secondary classrooms. 	Content area teachers whose coursework relies on their students' reading skills.
Dec. 12, 2022 3:30-4:40 pm	Supporting Secondary ELLs with Writing  This session explores the connection between oral language and written expression, and includes research-based strategies that help ELs express themselves in writing.	Content area teachers who require extensive or frequent written work from their students.

For additional information contact the ESOL teacher or ESOL Coordinator who supports your school. Register for all sessions in Frontline.