  - a. Pleased w/ reopening
  - b. 130 students signed up to be in building for 3rd quarter - about 115 per day actually attending
  - c. Workload for kids - too much/too little?
    - i. What should kids who finish early during asynchronous time?
      1. Should be offered enrichment activities
  - d. Budget request - more air purifiers for 3 classrooms in the basement which are not getting as much ventilation - currently researching options
  - e. Middle school sports/activities?
    - i. No update from district, but have time before spring season
  - f. Breakfast and lunch are free of charge - please encourage kids to grab breakfast!
  - g. Friday structure
    - i. Not calling it "asynchronous Fridays" anymore, but are continuing to focus on interventions. Students should still be logging in to classes for interventions or enrichment - not new content.
  - h. Time between classes
    - i. Should be 10 minutes between classes, though in-person kids have been transitioning a little faster than planned, so may start a little early. Should not be marked tardy if arrive (in person or online) according to schedule.
  - i. Thanks to PTO for snacks for staff
  - j. Parents shared positives about staff (see below)
5. Fundraising update - Colette on behalf of Sarah Custis

    - i. 6th grade is doing virtual event
    - ii. 7th and 8th encouraged to organize events
      - 1. Lisa - 8th grade planning to rent drive-in movie theater for night
- 7. Budget requests/designated funds for reopening
  - a. Still have $2700 in funds from last year earmarked for reopening
    - i. Can definitely spend on air purifiers
    - ii. Still have funds available for needy families, teacher classroom requests, etc.
- 8. Other ideas for student togetherness safely (outside or virtual)?
  - a. Circle of kids in park
  - b. Soccer/kickball games
  - c. Virtual trivia night for students - can hire a company to run it
- 9. What about graduation?
  - a. To be determined - district will set guidelines
  - b. 7th grade reps usually help plan 8th grade graduation
  - c. High school grad ceremonies will be in Busch Stadium
- 10. Yearbook

Staff positives shared by parents in chat:

From Eleanor White to Everyone: 06:50 PM

I appreciate Mr. Hamilton, the security guard, for his help in putting up with our family's weird schedule of early pick ups!

From Jennifer Anania to Everyone: 06:50 PM

My daughter really like Mr. Miller's room setup! Even though she's home, she's able to see the kids in class.

From Sara Swain to Everyone: 06:51 PM

Thank you! You guys are doing great! My daughter is so happy to be back with friends and seeing her teachers in person.

From Me to Everyone: 06:51 PM

My daughter loves getting to know teachers in person and meet some new friends.

From Jocelyn Hawthorne to Everyone: 06:51 PM

Appreciate the seamless, safe transition! Thank you doesn't seem like enough!

From Nathaniel Lischwe to Everyone: 06:53 PM

Thank you for the feedback! The great work is a result of the teamwork on the part of the staff team under Ms. King's direction.

From Jill Perry to Everyone: 06:53 PM

big shout out to Licklider (Spanish) for showing such care and attention toward our daughter and her chilly shoulder ways - love how she took time to call and talk to me (mom) in order to learn best approach to garner engagement

From Nathaniel Lischwe to Everyone: 06:54 PM

We have been pushing it too. There are more staff members in process, I think!

From Sara Steindorf to Everyone: 06:55 PM

Shout out to Ms. Stortzum (Science) for making science really fun for my son!
