

3rd Annual Scholar Athlete Luncheon

April 30, 2014

Missouri Athletic Club

April 30, 2014

Greetings!

I am delighted to welcome you to the second annual St. Louis Public Schools Scholar Athletes Awards Luncheon. This is a wonderful opportunity to publicly honor and acknowledge our outstanding high school student athletes who have maintained a 3.25 G.P.A. or higher grade point average while competing in sports. It is worth noting that this year we are recognizing 473 scholar athletes, 61 more than last year's group of 412 and 162 more than our first year.

I would also like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere appreciation to our guest speakers, Mike Alden and Barrett Jones, as well as our distinguished table role models, including several St. Louis Public Schools high school star athlete alumni, sportscasters, sports writers, and successful individuals from the business and professional community for participating in our awards luncheon today. I am confident this event will make a lasting impression not only for our Scholar Athletes being honored, but for all of us in attendance.

Special thanks are in order to the St. Louis Rams for sponsoring today's Scholar Athlete Awards Luncheon. The Rams continue to be avid supporters of the District and are valued partners in our mission to educate the young people of St. Louis.

Please join me in celebrating these inspiring young men and women for their athletic and academic achievements. They are not only exemplary role models for their respective high schools, but for the entire District.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Kelvin R. Adams", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Kelvin R. Adams, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Mike Alden

Mike Alden has been the AD at Mizzou since July of 1998. Prior to coming to Mizzou, he held a similar post at Texas State. He also served in senior management positions at the University of New Mexico and Arizona State University.

Alden played college football at the University of Evansville and coached football at both Evansville and the University of Pennsylvania.

He has developed a focus on the three core values for intercollegiate athletics at Mizzou.

Academic Integrity

Mizzou student-athletes' academic success has been recognized nationally and continues to be a major pride point for our institution. This success has become even more visible because these accomplishments have been reached with the highest level of class and integrity. Mizzou's grade-point average, graduation success rate and academic progress rate are amongst the best in the nation.

Social Responsibility

Social responsibility is an integral part of Mizzou's athletic department culture. Student-athletes and staff are passionate about serving the community as well as participating in personal and professional development opportunities. Mizzou is also leading the way in social responsibility programming through our Men for Men and Women for Women initiatives.

Competitive Excellence

In the NACDA Director's Cup standings, which rates each Division I program on its competitive success on all sports, Mizzou has enjoyed some of its best finishes ever under Alden's direction. Additionally, in just its second year in the Southeastern Conference, Mizzou claimed championships in both football and volleyball in 2013.

Alden is seen as a leader in University, Conference and National Initiatives and is a very visible lecturer on leadership and management skills nationally.

Barrett Jones

St. Louis Rams Center/Guard Barrett Jones is a four-time Academic All-American athlete from the University of Alabama. He was selected by the Rams in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL draft. As a rookie, Jones saw action in four games for the Rams at the end of the 2013 season.

Success is no stranger to Jones. He won three National Championships at Alabama and was named to the All-American Team three times. Jones earned the Rimington Trophy as the country's best center, the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, and the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Award – which is commonly referred to as the Academic Heisman.

Jones was a top college prospect after starring at Evangelical Christian High School in the Memphis, Tennessee area. His success in high school earned him a spot in the 2007 U.S. Army All-American game.

Listed on the Rams roster as 6' 4" and 308 lbs., Jones makes his presence known on and off the field. He possesses both a bachelor's and master's degree in accounting. His father, Rex, played basketball at Alabama.
