

CULTURAL LEADERSHIP

UNDERSTANDING THROUGH THE AFRICAN AMERICAN - JEWISH EXPERIENCE

Seeking High School Freshmen or Sophomores to Change the World

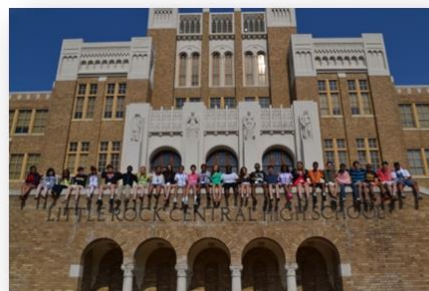

Cultural Leadership is a year-long, educational, leadership program that teaches students to be social justice activists and change agents. Students meet over the course of a year – 460 hours in all, which includes three weekend retreats, monthly meetings, and a three week summer transformational journey covering much of the east coast and the “deep south.”

Cultural Leadership opens students' eyes to problems that often go unnoticed in our communities, such as racism, anti-Semitism, poverty and oppression. While the program teaches about these issues through the Jewish and African-American lens, it is open to ALL students of ALL backgrounds who wish to learn about activism and make a difference in the world.

Throughout the year and on the summer trip, students meet influential people like Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Congressman John Lewis, Missouri Senator Claire McCaskill, and Rev. Dr. Al Sharpton, as well as local leaders. In addition, they meet countless others whose names are less well known, but have still had an incredible impact on our country. Each speaker and program provides students with more passion, experience, and knowledge, exciting them to become “troublemakers of the best kind.”

Parents of participants meet during the year, as well. If you would like more information on the program, or an application, you can visit www.CulturalLeadership.org or contact the office at 314.725.3222.
