FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

All work and no play will make Jack or Jane a dull child. The educational program here at Gateway is designed to assist the emerging adolescents to successfully move from childhood to adolescence. Gateway's program emphasizes the development of studies and activities that integrate extracurricular activities that incorporate positive character development. The 2003 yearbook has been designed so that you will have positive, lasting memories as you view Gateway Middle School "At a glance".

When I Grow Up

Author Unknown

When I grow up I wonder if people will be more afraid to cry
Than they are to die? Will I be able to see a rainbow while Watching the sky? Will there be any trees alive? If not, how Will the planet survive? Will the Internet have a website and www.com? Will there still be a lifetime air supply?

When I grow up and get bored and have nothing to do, will my Son and I build a canoe? Will water that use to be blue be so Polluted till it gives us the flu? Will a thousand dollars be Enough for shoes? Will I have to be like you? Letting money
Make the decisions for everything I do?

When I grow up will the existence of dolphins and whales just be a Story I tell that starts with "Once upon a time" and ends with "Where Did they go?" Will adults be the hammer and the children the nails?
Will the school be next to a jail? Will the truth be illegal to sell?

When I grow up, will anyone be on the news for anything other than Killing? Will drug dealers still be standing in front of my building?
Will they ever learn to love or still be afraid of the feeling?
Will television and music videos still raise America's children?

When I grown up will innocent children still be wrongfully touched?
Will students go home in a bulletproof bus? Will those children have
No one to trust? That would hurt me so much because I want to be Happy when I grow up.

GWMS COUNSELING TEAM PROVIDE GUIDANCE FOR THE STUDENTS

Career Education

Everybody needs
a helping hand
sometimes.

Crisis Intervention

Drug Prevention
Program

If you want to develop a healthy
mind, positive
social interaction
is important.

Conflict Mediation

At Gateway everyone is encouraged to become part of a winning team.

Peer Counseling

Character Education

Students are happy
when their parents
support them by being present at school events.

WHAT I WANT TO BE

I want to be a lawyer because I like to argue a lot, and lawyers get paid a lot of money to argue.

John Cash

My name is Brittney Andrews, and I like helping kids. When I grow up, I want to be a pediatrician, which is a children's doctor.

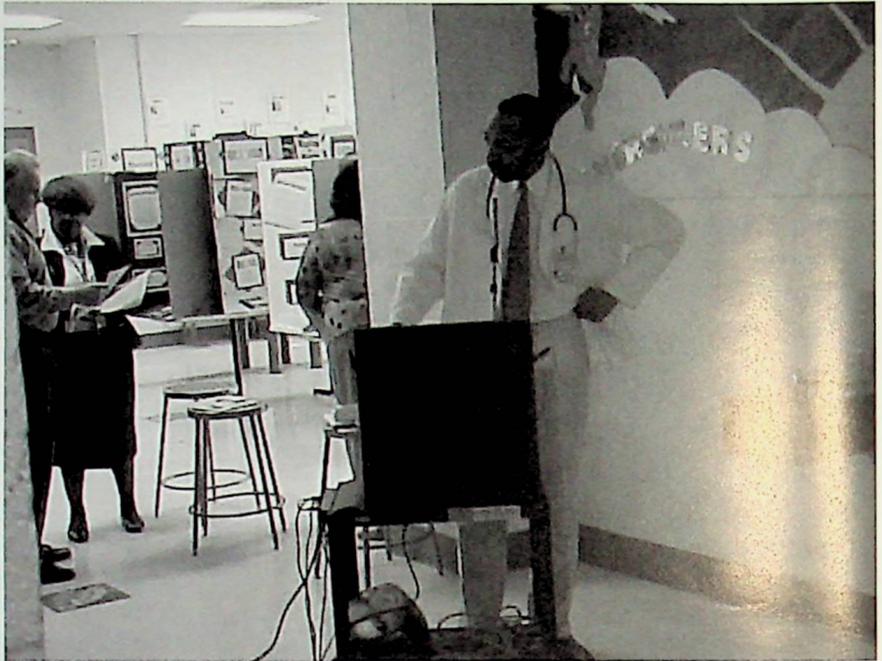

I want to be a basketball player when I grow up because I can get paid for doing what I love to do.

Vu Le

When I grow up, I want to be a doctor because I would like to help people and save lives.

Adrianan Reyes

Mr. William Barry presents information to the student about the MIND Program (Multicultural Initiative for New Doctors), which is sponsored by the St. Louis Public Schools & St. Louis University.

Ms. Jones listens as Mr. Barry encourages the students to set positive goals and be determined to reach their goals.

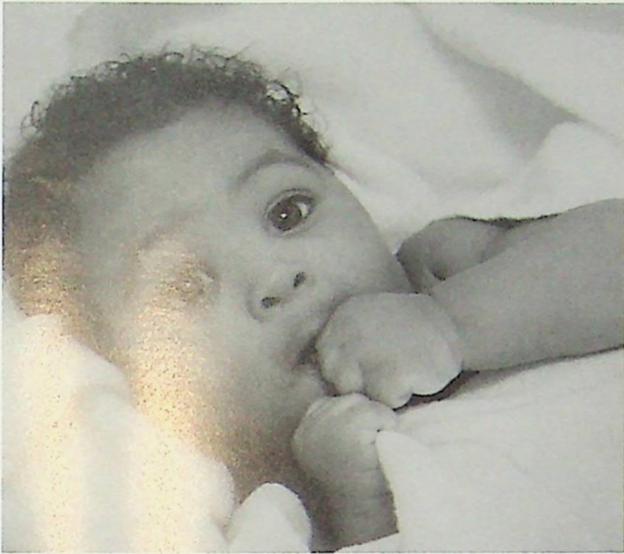

"The Tortoise and the Hare" are demonstrated by Teron Anthony and Mr. Barry.

My name is Stephanie Lloyd, and I want to be a pediatrician when I grow up because I love taking care of children and soothing them.

The Cutest Little Baby Faces

Robert F. Nicholson Jr. was born November 12, 2002. He is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Nicholson. Mrs. Nicholson is a special education teacher here at Gateway Middle School.

The 8th Graders Have

no regrets

Going different places and seeing new things .
 Remembering all your friends and the fun you had.
 Achieving goals and careers you want.
 Deserving jobs in respected positions; using the skills you learned later on in life.
 Adventures and journeys you want to take.
 Terminate all feuds and dislikes that you had.
 Ignoring the past and looking toward the future.
 Overcoming all immaturity, never forgetting you

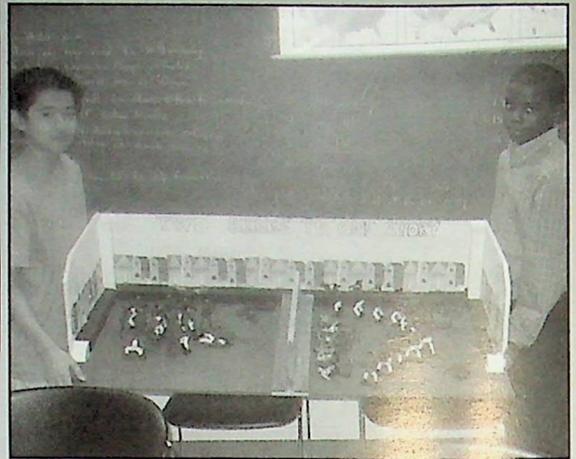

GRADUATED!

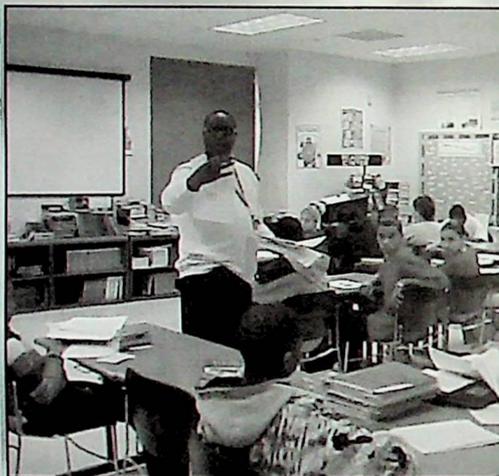

The 8th grade class of 2003 will be the high school graduating class of 2007!

"You can't learn much if you're not at school!" says Mr. Lowe and his advisory students.

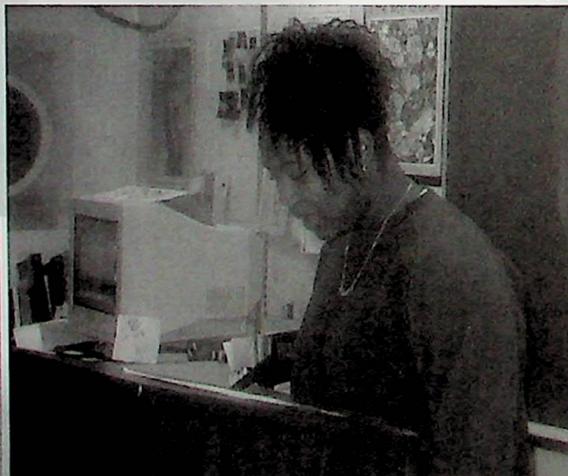

Tin Duong and Freddie Hu present their social studies project. (Dr. [unclear] class)

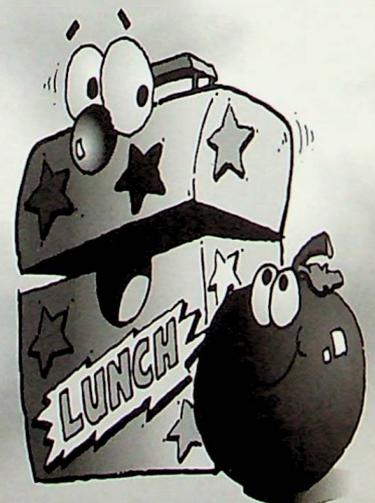

Mr. Riley explains the writing process to his class.

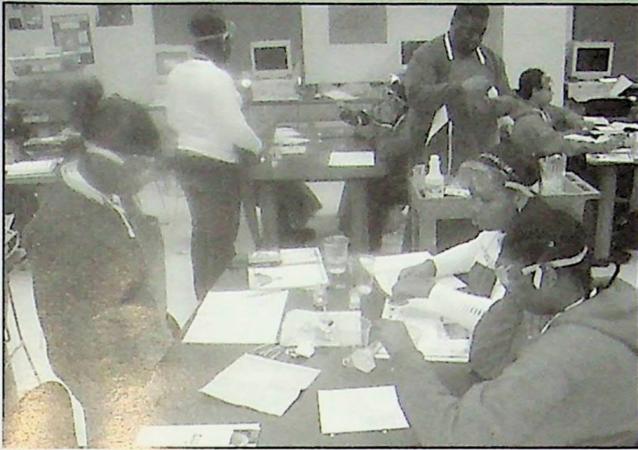

Ms. A. Neals and Doc. Buehler with the Tyson's Research Center guide, Ms. Jane Walker, prepare the students for a geological observation of the ground.

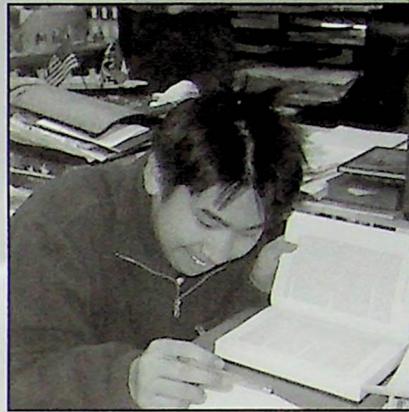

Ariana Cooper makes an oral presentation in Ms. Brown's communication skills class.

Mr. Smith and students are actively involved in a science research project.

Making the grade!
Denis Ha knows it takes hard work to achieve the best result.

8th Graders
in action!

Ms. J. Francis and Brittany Standard work their problem out.

Jessica Sanders submits the final draft of her essay to her communication skills teacher, Ms. E. Jackson

Mr. Wilson helps Patrice Espeut count up the cost of living.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPLES OF LEARNING

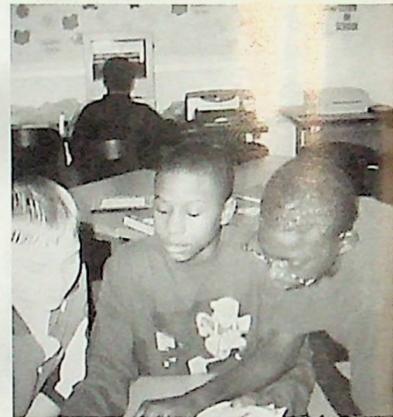

Our principal, Ms. Jones, enjoys spending time with the seventh graders and indulging in an exciting ride on the hovercraft. She says that as she was growing up she learned that one of the principles of learning is to have fun!

Mrs. M. Harris reviews the concepts of math with Robin Taylor.

Mr. Moore's 7th grade social studies class takes a look back in history.

Jason Otten, Jonathan Warren, and Vincent Meeks are working on equations.

Shamika Latimore and Hiep Nguyen don't want to be disturbed because they're trying to make the honor roll this quarter.

Jessica Patzius will make sure that it is done!

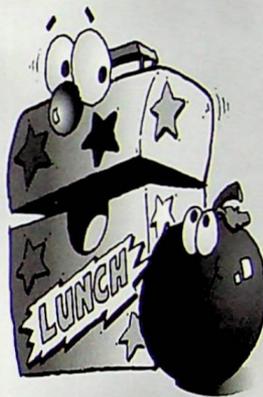

The Seventh Graders Are A CLASS ACT!

Mrs. Buckingham's math students are counting up the test.

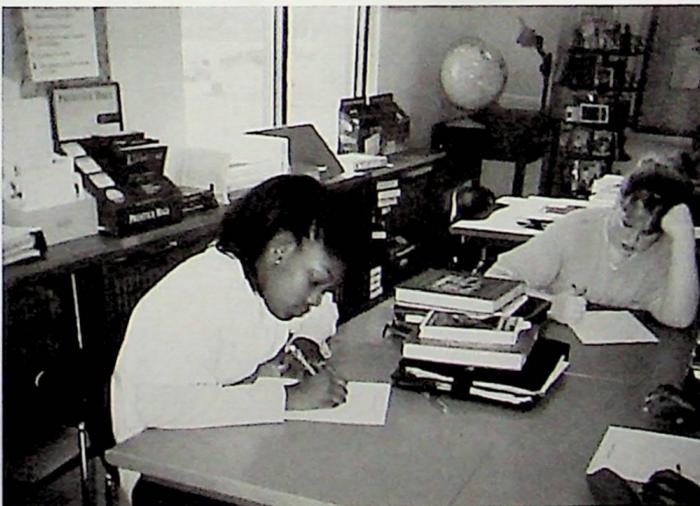

Ms. Brooks is busy as usual working on a special literary project with her communication skill students.

Ms. Wobbie's students know that reading is fundamental!

Robert Cozares is constructing a work of art.

"Working now so that we can play later"

Jamila Becton doesn't have time for an interview because she's working on her assignment.
