

Oral Reading – Words of the Week, Lesson 33

The words for this week are: amicable, compile, exclude, pose and coincide.

1. If a relationship is amicable, it is friendly. In an amicable agreement, people do not argue.
2. When you compile information, you collect many different pieces together.
3. If someone is excluded, they are kept out of something. To exclude is to keep something from entering.
4. When someone poses for a photograph, they sit or stand in a certain way.
5. When two events coincide, they happen at the same time.
